Making Restitution or Court Fine Payments

---

The court may assess fines and fees for such services as legal representation, booking fees, supervision fees and victims restitution. These fines and fees are collected by the Central Collections Division of the Auditor-Controller.

If you have any questions regarding payments and billing of fines and fees regarding your case, you must contact Central Collections directly. Your payments will be monitored by the San Bernardino County Probation Department, in accordance with your court ordered terms and conditions of probation.

All payments: cash, check and credit card are received through Central Collections.

The Central Collections office is located at:

268 W Hospitality Ln,

San Bernardino, CA 92415

The phone number is: 909-387-8303
